

Jason Hancock

Executive Protection | Protective Intelligence | Risk Mitigation | Resilience Training

Based in Rosarito, Mexico • Available Worldwide

A Discreet Standard of Protection

Jason Hancock offers a rare blend of high-level security expertise, protective intelligence, and client-centered service. With over 25 years of international experience across the USA, Mexico, Asia, and the Caribbean, Jason has safeguarded political figures, corporate leaders, and high-net-worth families in complex and dynamic environments. Trusted at the highest levels, including operational support for a U.S. presidential detail, Jason's approach emphasizes calm presence, confidentiality, and complete client assurance.

Specialized Services

- Executive Protection & Security Consulting

Discreet, relationship-driven close protection for individuals, families, and executives worldwide.

- Protective Intelligence & Risk Assessment

Threat identification, advance planning, and site security audits to ensure safety with foresight.

- Protective & Evasive Driving Instruction

Advanced vehicle-based threat management, convoy operations, and counter-surveillance driving.

- Integrated Training Programs

Tailored seminars for corporate security teams, military units, and law enforcement, designed to sharpen perception, adaptability, and response.

- Resilience & Performance Guidance

Drawing on Traditional Chinese Medicine, Ayurveda, and Western practices to support recovery, vitality, and clarity under pressure.

Philosophy of Protection

"True protection is quiet and seamless. My work is about more than reducing threats, it is about creating calm, building trust, and ensuring life flows without interruption. I adapt to the rhythm of a client's world, anticipate needs, and remain a trusted presence wherever they go. Confidentiality, discretion, and attentiveness define my role. The highest compliment I can receive is that a client feels entirely at ease, knowing everything is handled."

Jason Hancock

Why Work With Jason?

- 25+ years in international executive protection and risk management.
- Trusted at presidential and corporate levels for absolute discretion.
- Calm, low-profile presence that prioritizes safety and client comfort.
- Proven expertise in advance work, crisis planning, and protective intelligence.
- Global perspective shaped by work across North America, Latin America, Asia, and the Caribbean.

Contact & Availability

Jason is currently based in Rosarito, Mexico and is available worldwide for executive protection contracts, estate security, international travel security, protective driving instruction, and elite training seminars.

Contact details available on request.